INTRODUCTION.

No further apology can be necessary for issuing this edition of the "Wesleyan Psalmist" enlarged and much improved from its precedent, the Songs of Canaan, than to say that all of a very large edition of the latter work have already been sold, and orders are frequently received for more. It is but proper to state that this work although in one sense a second edition will be found to have many claims beyond the former—

- 1st. Many new tunes of great popularity are introduced.
2. Although the price is nearly the same, it will contain about twice the number of tunes and more than twice the number of hymns.
3. It will be printed on much better paper, and much better executed.
4. Owing to the haste in which the former edition passed the press, many errors escaped uncorrected; it is believed that this will be a more correct edition.
- And 5th. Great pains have been taken in the selection of several appropriate Hymns to most of the tunes so as to render it a proper supplement to the regular Hymn book both in the class and Prayer meeting. It has been thought best by those concerned to fix the price of this work so low that all who wish may readily be able to supply themselves.

It might not be anticipated that such a work as this would be found beyond strict criticism, yet it is hoped that as little occasion for this is given as in the nature of the case could be expected.

The compiler feels indebted to Mr. J. B. Packard for the considerable aid he has afforded him in harmonizing and arranging many of the tunes in this little book; also to several of the members of the Providence, New England and New Hampshire Conferences for their willing and efficient services— may we sing with the Spirit and with the Understanding also.

And shut his glories in; [hide,
When Christ the mighty Maker died,
For man the creature's sin.

While his dear cross appears;

And melt mine eyes to tears.

2 Was it for crimes that I have done,
He groan'd upon the tree?
Amazing pity! grace unknown!
And love beyond degree!

5 But drops of grief can ne'er repay
The debt of love I owe;
Here, Lord, I give myself away,
'Tis all that I can do.
Remember me, &c.

NOTE.—During the great revival at Bennett Street, Boston, in 1842, this tune was an especial favorite.

Arranged for this work.

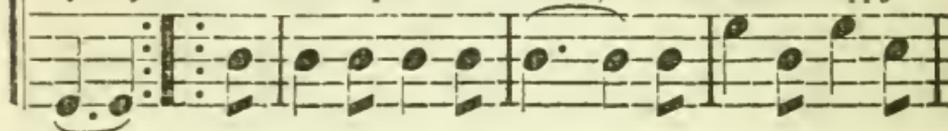

NOTE.—Perhaps no tune has been more extensively used than this during the past year—1842.

1. When I can read my ti-tle clear, To mansions in the I'll bid fare-well to ev'ry fear, And wipe my weep-ing skies, } And wipe my weeping eyes, And wipe my weeping eyes. } To meet to part no more, On Canaan's happy eyes, I'll bid farewell to ev'-ry fear, And wipe my shore, 'Tis there we'll meet at Je-sus' feet, We'll meet to weep-ing eyes, Oh that will be joy-ful, joy-ful, part no more.

Fine.

2 Should earth against my soul en-
And fiery darts be hurl'd, [gage,
Then I can smile at Satan's rage,
And face a frowning world.
Oh that will be joyful, &c.

3 Let cares like a wild deluge come,
Let storms of sorrow fall ;
So I but safely reach my home,
My God, my heaven, my all :
Oh that will be joyful, &c.

4 There I shall bathe my weary soul,
In seas of heavenly rest,
And not a wave of trouble roll
Across my peaceful breast.
Oh that will be joyful, &c.

5 The saints in all this glorious war,
Shall conquer, though they die ;
They see the triumph from afar,
By faith they bring it nigh.
Oh that will be joyful, &c.

6 When that illustrious day shall rise
And all thy armies shine
In robes of victory through the skies,
The glory shall be thine.
Oh that will be joyful, &c.

7 When we've been there ten thousand years,
Bright shining as the sun ;
We've no less days to sing God's praise,
Than when we first begun.

Christian Union.

1 Our souls by love together knit,
Cemented, mix'd in one,
One hope, one heart, one mind, one voice,

'Tis heav'n on earth begun.

Oh that will be joyful, &c.

2 Our hearts have often burn'd with-
And glow'd with sacred fire, [in,
While Jesus spoke, and fed, and blest,
And fill'd th' enlarg'd desire.

Oh that will be joyful, &c.

3 And when thou mak'st thy jewels up,
And set'st thy starry crown ;
When all thy sparkling gems shall shine,

Proclaim'd by thee thine own.

Oh that will be joyful, &c.

4 May we, a little band of love,
We sinners, sav'd by grace,
From glory unto glory chang'd,
Behold thee face to face.

Oh that will be joyful, &c.

5 Together let us sweetly live,
Together let us die ;
And each a starry crown receive,
And reign above the sky.

Oh that will be joyful, &c.

6 'Then when the mighty work is wrought,
Receive thy ready bride ;
Give us in heaven a happy lot,
With all the sanctified.

Oh that will be joyful, &c.

NOTE.—This tune is at once recognized as the old favorite of every lover of devotional singing.

1. All hail the great Immanuel's name, Let angels prostrate fall ;

Bring forth the royal di - a - dem, And crown him Lord of all—

THE PRODIGAL'S RETURN. C. M.

Arranged for this work.

NOTE.—This is a proper Hymn and tune to be sung on the return of Backsliders.

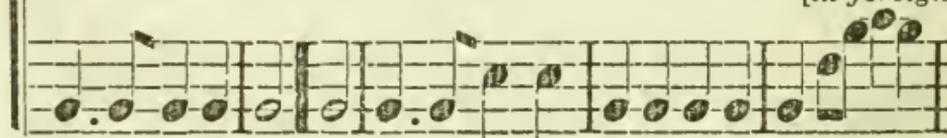

1. Afflictions though they seem severe, In mercy oft are sent,

They stopp'd the prodigal's career And caused him to re - pent. I'll die no more for bread, I'll die no more for bread, he cried, Nor starve [in foreign lands, My father's house hath large supplies, And bounteous are his [hands.

COME TO JESUS.

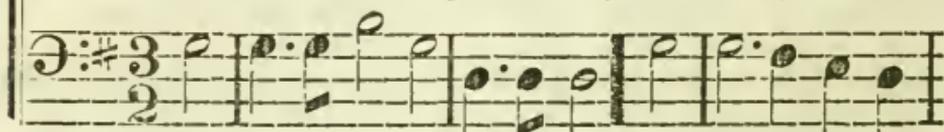

1. Come to Jesus, come to Jesus, come to Jesus, come to Jesus, come to Jesus, come to Jesus, come to Je - sus, just now, just now, come to Jesus, just now, just now, just now, come to Jesus, just now.

- |                                      |                                       |
|--------------------------------------|---------------------------------------|
| 2 He will save you— just now. | 7 Can you doubt him— just now. |
| 3 He is able— just now.       | 8 See him pleading— just now.  |
| 4 He is willing— just now.    | 9 Lo, he saves you— just now.  |
| 5 He is ready— just now.      | 10 Hallelujah— Amen.           |
| 6 I believe it— just now.     |                                       |

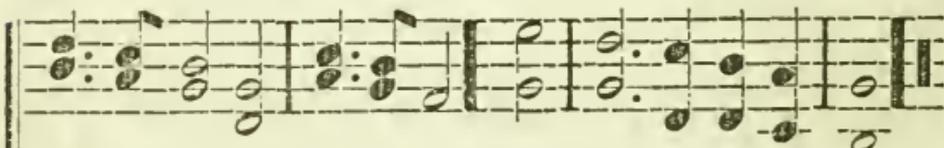

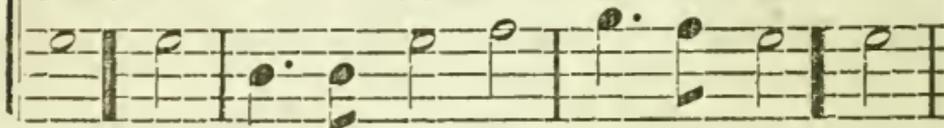

NOTE.—We hardly know an equal to the sweetness of the melody of this tune and words.

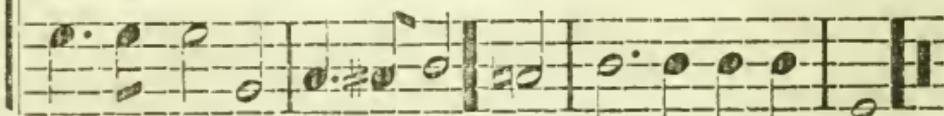

1. There is an hour of peaceful rest, To mourning wanderers given; There is a joy for souls distressed, A balm for every wounded breast—'Tis found above—in heaven.

* From Church Harmony.

2 There is a soft, a downy bed,
As fair as breath of even;
A couch for weary mortals spread,
Where they may rest the aching head,
And find repose—in heaven.

3 There is a home for weary souls,
By sin and sorrow driven;
Where tossed on life's tempestuous shoals,
Where storms arise and ocean rolls,
And all is drear—but heaven.

4 There faith lifts up the tearless eye,
To brighter prospects given;
It views the tempest passing by,
Sees evening shadows quickly fly,
And all serene—in heaven.

5 There fragrant flowers immortal bloom,
And joys supreme are given;
There rays divine disperse the gloom,
Beyond the dark and narrow tomb
Appears the dawn of heaven

Nothing true but Heaven.

1 This world is all a fleeting show,
For man's illusion given;
The smiles of joy, the tears of wo,
Deceitful shine, deceitful flow,
There's nothing true but heaven.

2 And false the light on glory's plume,
As fading hues of even;
And genius' bud and beauty's bloom
Are blossoms gathered for the tomb;
There's nothing bright but heaven.

3 Poor wanderers of a stormy day,
From wave to wave we're driven;
And fancy's flash and reason's ray,
Serve but to light the troubled way,
There's nothing calm but heaven.

4 In vain do mortals sigh for bliss,
Without their sins forgiven;
True pleasure, everlasting peace,
Are only found in God's free grace;
There's nothing good but heaven.

The Perfect Heart.

1 O for a heart to praise my God,
A heart from sin set free;
A heart that always feels thy blood,
So freely spilt for me.

2 A heart resign'd, submissive, meek,
My great Redeemer's throne;
Where only Christ is heard to speak,
Where Jesus reigns alone.

3 O for a lowly contrite heart,
Believing, true, and clean!
Which neither life nor death can part
From him that dwells within.

4 A heart in every thought renew'd,
And full of love divine;
Perfect, and right, and pure, and good,
A copy, Lord, of thine.

5 Thy nature, gracious Lord, impart,
Come quickly from above;
Write thy new name upon my heart,
Thy new, best name of love.

Heaven on Earth.

1 This world's not "all a fleeting show,
For man's illusion given:"
He that hath sooth'd a widow's wo,
Or wiped the orphan's tear, doth know
There's something here of heaven.

2 And he that walks life's thorny way,
With feelings calm and even;
Whose path is lit from day to day
By virtue's bright and steady ray,
Hath something felt of heaven.

3 He that the Christian's course hath run,
And all his foes forgiven—
Who measures out life's little span,
In love to God, and love to man,
On earth has tasted heaven.

4 From such as walk in wisdom's
Corroding fears are driven; (road, They're washed in Christ's atoning
blood,
Enjoy communion with their God,
And find their way to heaven.

The Watchful Heart.

1 I want a principle within,
Of jealous, godly fear;
A sensibility of sin,
A pain to feel it near;

2 I want the first approach to feel,
Of pride, or fond desire;
To catch the wand'ring of my will,
And quench the kindling fire.

3 From thee that I no more may part,
No more thy goodness grieve,
The filial awe, the fleshly heart,
The tender conscience give.

4 Quick as the apple of an eye,
O God, my conscience make!
Awake my soul when sin is nigh,
And keep it still awake.

5 If to the right or left I stray,
That moment, Lord, reprove;
And let me weep my life away,
For having griev'd thy love.

6 O may the least omission pain,
My well-instructed soul!
And drive me to the blood again,
Which makes the wounded whole.

J. B. PACKARD.

1. Je - ru - sa - lem, my hap - py home, O how I long for thee ! When will my sorrows have an end, Thy joys when shall I see ?

Thy walls are all of precious stone, Most glorious to be - hold ;

Thy gates are richly set with pearl, Thy streets are pav'd with gold.

2 Thy garden and thy pleasant walks,
My study long have been ;
Such dazzling views by human sight,
Has never yet been seen.
If heaven be thus so glorious, Lord,
Why should I stay from thence ;
What folly's this that I should dread,
To die and go from hence !

3 Reach down, O Lord, thine arm of
And cause me to ascend ; (grace,
Where congregations ne'er break up,
And sabbaths never end.
Jesus, my Lord, to glory's gone,
Him will I go and see ;
And all my brethren here below,
Will soon come after me.

4 My friends, I bid you all adieu,
I leave you in God's care,
And if I never more see you,
Go on, I'll meet you there.
When we've been there ten thousand Bright shining as the sun, (years,
We've no less days to sing God's
Than when we first begun. (praise,

Christian Fellowship.

1 Lift up your hearts to things above,
Ye followers of the Lamb,
And join with us to praise his love,
And glorify his name.
To Jesus' name give thanks and sing,
Whose mercies never end :
Rejoice ! rejoice ! the Lord is King !
The King is now our Friend !

2 We for his sake count all things loss,
On earthly good look down ;
And joyfully sustain the cross,
Till we receive the crown.
O let us stir each other up,
Our faith by works t'approve,
By holy purifying hope,
And the sweet task of love.

The Christian's Hope.

1 How happy every child of grace,
Who knows his sins forgiven !
This earth, he cries, is not my place,
I seek my place in heaven ;
A country far from mortal sight,
Yet O ! by faith I see ;
The land of rest, the saints' delight,
The heaven prepar'd for me.

2 O what a blessed hope is ours !
While here on earth we stay,
We more than taste the heavenly powers,
And antedate that day ;
We feel the resurrection near,
Our life in Christ conceal'd,
And with his glorious presence here
Our earthen vessels fill'd.

Heaven Anticipated.

1 Arise, my soul, to Pisgah's height,
And view the promised land ;
And see by faith the glorious sight,
Our heritage at hand ;
A land where pure enjoyments dwell,
And blessings most divine ;
Where saints their highest notes do swell,
And in bright glory shine.

2 There endless springs of pleasure flow,
At my Redeemer's side,
For all who live by faith below,
And in their Lord confide ;
Fair Salem's dazzling gates are seen,
Just o'er the narrow flood ;
And fields, adorn'd with living green,
The residence of God.

3 My conflicts here will soon be past,
Where wild distraction reigns ;
Through toil and death I'll reach at last,
Fair Canaan's happy plains.
The lamp of life will soon grow pale,
The spark will soon decay,
And then my happy soul will sail
To everlasting day.

1. Am I a soldier of the cross, A follower of the Lamb ?

And shall I fear to own his cause, Or blush to speak his name ?

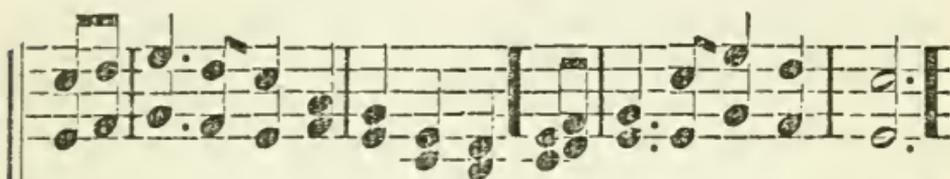

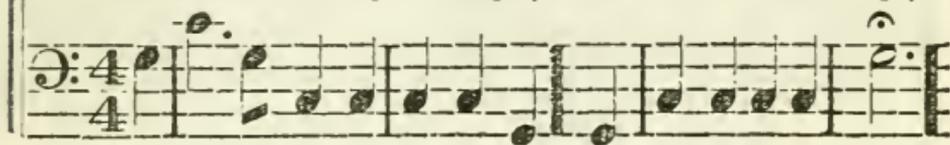

Fine.

Whilst others fought to win the prize, And sail'd through bloody seas.

1. There is a land of pure de-light, Where saints immortal reign,

In - fin - ite day excludes the night, And pleasures banish pain.

O Ca-naan, bright Ca-naan, It is the land of Ca-naan.

2 There everlasting spring abides,
And never with'ring flowers,
Death, like a narrow sea, divides
This heavenly land from ours.

Stand dressed in living green;
So to the Jews old Canaan stood,

While Jordan rolled between,

stood,
And view the landscape o'er;
Not Jordan's stream, nor death's cold flood,
Should fright us from the shore.

meet the Bridegroom, lo! he comes, And hails the festive year.

3 My soul is striving to be there ;
I long to rise and wing the air,
And trace the sacred road.
Adieu, adieu, all earthly things ;
O that I had an angel's wings,
I'd quickly see my God.

4 Fly, lingering moments, fly, O fly,
I thirst, I pant, I long to try,
Angelic joys to prove !
Soon shall I quit this house of clay,
Clap my glad wings and soar away,
And shout redeeming love.

The Savior's Love.

O Love divine, how sweet thou art :
When shall I find my willing heart
All taken up by thee?
I thirst, I faint, I die to prove
The greatness of redeeming love,
The love of Christ to me.

Stronger his love than death or hell,
Its riches are unsearchable ;
The first born sons of light
Desire in vain its depths to see :
They cannot reach the mystery,
The length, the breadth, and height.

God only knows the love of God ;
O that it now were shed abroad
In this poor stony heart !
For love I sigh, for love I pine ;
This only portion, Lord, be mine !
Be mine this better part.

Excellency of Christ.

1
O could I speak the matchless worth,
Oh, could I sound the glories forth,
Which in my Savior shine !,
I'd soar and touch the heavenly strings,
And vie with Gabriel while he sings,
In notes almost divine.

I'd sing the precious blood he spilt,
My ransom from the dreadful guilt
Of sin and wrath divine :
I'd sing his glorious righteousness,
In which all perfect heavenly dress
My soul shall ever shine.

3
I'd sing the characters he bears,
And all the forms of love he wears,
Exalted on his throne :
In loftiest songs of sweetest
praise,
I would, to everlasting days
Make all his glories known.

Well, the delightful day will come When my dear Lord will bring me home,
And I shall see his face :
Then, with my Savior, brother, friend,
A blest eternity I'll spend,
Triumphant in his grace.

MEDLEY.

1. Come on my partners in distress, My comrades through this wilderness, Who still your bodies feel; Awhile forget your griefs and fears, And look beyond this vale of tears, To that celestial hill.

Beyond the bounds of time and space,
Look forward to that heavenly place,
The saint's secure abode;
On faith's strong eagle pinions rise,
And force your passage to the skies,
And scale the mount of God.

Who suffer with our Master here,
We shall before his face appear,
And by his side sit down;
To patient faith the prize is sure,
And all who to the end endure
The cross, shall wear the crown.

Thrice blessed, bliss inspiring hope
It lifts the fainting spirit up;
It brings to life the dead.
Our conflicts here shall soon be past,
And you and I ascend at last,
Triumphant, with our Head.

5
In hope of that ecstatic pause,
Jesus, we now sustain the cross,
And at thy footstool fall;
Till thou our hidden life reveal—
Till thou our ravished spirits fill—
And God be all in all.—

The Glorious Hope.

1

O glorious hope of perfect love !
 It lifts me up to things above !
 It bears on eagles' wings ;
 It gives my ravish'd soul to taste,
 And makes me for some moments feast,
 With Jesus' priests and kings.

There is my house and portion fair,
 My treasure and my heart is there,
 And my abiding home.
 For me my elder brethren stay,
 And angels beckon me away,
 And Jesus bids me come !

3

I come, thy servant, Lord, replies,
 I come to meet thee in the skies,
 And claim my heavenly rest ;
 Now let the pilgrim's journey end,
 Now, O my Savior, brother, friend,
 Receive me to thy breast !

Prospect of Eternity.

1

Lo ! on a narrow neck of land,
 'Twixt two unbounded seas I stand,
 Secure, insensible ;
 A point of time, a moment's space,
 Removes me to that heavenly place,
 Or shuts me up in hell.

O God, mine inmost soul convert,
 And deeply on my thoughtful heart
 Eternal things impress ;
 Give me to feel their solemn weight,
 And tremble on the brink of fate,
 And wake to righteousness !

Before me place in dread array,
 The pomp of that tremendous day,
 When thou with clouds shalt come,
 To judge the nations at thy bar,
 And tell me, Lord, shall I be there,
 To meet a joyful doom !

The Good Resolve.

1

Be it my only wisdom here,
 To serve the Lord with filial fear,
 With loving gratitude ;
 Superior sense may I display,
 By shunning every evil way,
 And walking in the good.

2

O may I still from sin depart ;
 A wise and understanding heart,
 Jesus, to me be given !
 And let me through thy spirit know,
 To glorify my God below,
 And find my way to heaven.

The Solemn Inquiry.

1

And am I only born to die ?
 And must I suddenly comply
 With nature's stern decree ?
 What after death for me remains ?
 Celestial joys, or hellish pains,
 To all eternity !

2

How then ought I on earth to live,
 While God prolongs the kind reprieve
 And props the house of clay ;
 My sole concern, my single care,
 To watch, and tremble, and prepare
 Against that fatal day !

No room for mirth or trifling here
 For worldly hope, or worldly fear,
 If life so soon is gone ;
 If now the Judge is at the door,
 And all mankind must stand before
 Th' inexorable throne !

4

No matter which my thoughts em-
 A moment's misery or joy ; (ploy,
 But O ! when both shall end,
 Where shall I find my destin'd place ?
 Shall I my everlasting days,
 With fiends or angels spend ?

Nothing is worth a thought beneath
 But how I may escape the death
 That never, never dies !
 How make mine own election sure ;
 And when I fail on earth, secure
 A mansion in the skies.

1. What sound is this? a song through heav'n re-
And now from earth I hear the song resounding, God is Love! God is Love! } Yes, while a - dor - ing bounding, God is Love! God is Love! } hosts proclaim Love is his nature, love his name, My soul in rapture cries the same; God is Love! God is Love!

This song repeat, repeat, ye saints in glory,
God is Love!
And saints on earth shout back the pleasing story,
God is Love!
In this let earth and heaven agree,
To sound his love both full and free,
And let the theme forever be,
God is Love!

3

Creation speaks with thousand tongues proclaiming,
God is Love!
And Providence unites her voice exclaiming,
God is Love!
But let the burdened sinner hear
The Gospel, sounding loud and clear,
To every soul both far and near,
God is Love!

4

This heavenly love all round is sweetly flowing,
God is Love!
And in my heart the sacred fire is glowing,
God is Love!
That God is love I know full well;
And had I power his love to tell,
With loudest notes my song should swell:
God is Love!

5

The love of God is now my greatest pleasure,
God is Love!
And while I live, I'll ask no other treasure,
God is Love!
This theme shall be my song below,
And when to glory I shall go,
This strain eternally shall flow,—
God is Love! S. LOVELL.

All is Well.

1

What's this that steals, that steals upon my frame?
Is it death?
That soon will quench, will quench
this vital flame,
Is it death?
If this be death, I soon shall be
From every pain and sorrow free,
I shall the King of glory see,
All is well.

2

Weep not, my friends, my friends,
weep not for me.
All is well.
My sins are pardoned, pardoned, I am free,
All is well.
There's not a cloud that doth arise,
To hide my Savior from my eyes.
I soon shall mount the upper skies.
All is well.

3

Tune, tune your harps, your harps, ye saints in glory.
All is well.
I will rehearse, rehearse the pleasing story,
All is well.
Bright angels are from glory come, They're round my bed, they're in my room,
They wait to waft my spirit home.

4

Hark, hark! my Lord, my Lord and Master calls me.
All is well.
I soon shall see, shall see his face in glory.
All is well.
Farewell, dear friends, adieu, adieu!
I can no longer stay with you.
My glittering crown appears in view.
All is well.

NOTE.—The very extended use of this tune for the past year, is the best evidence of its value.

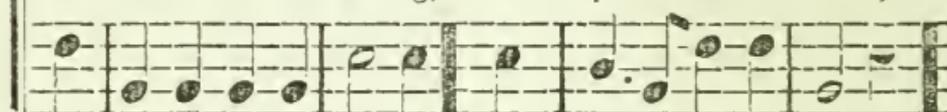

1. The morning light is breaking, The darkness disappears,

2. Rich dews of grace come o'er us, In many a gentle shower,

The sons of earth are waking, To pen-i - ten-tial tears ;

And brighter scenes before us, Are opening every hour ;

Each breeze that sweeps the ocean, Brings tidings from a-far,

Each cry to Heaven go-ing, A - bun-dant answers brings,

Of nations in commotion, Prepared for Zion's war.

And heavenly gales are blowing, With peace upon their wings

3 See heathen nations bending,
 Before the God we love !
 And thousand hearts ascending
 In gratitude above ;
 While sinners now confessing,
 The gospel call obey,
 And seek the Savior's blessing,
 A nation in a day.

4 Blest river of salvation,
 Pursue thy onward way,
 Flow thou to every nation,
 Nor in thy richness stay ;
 Stay not, till all the lowly,
 Triumphant reach their home,
 Stay not, till all the holy,
 Proclaim, the Lord has come.

Go into every nation.

1 From heaven's blissful regions,
 Where seraphs dwell in light,
 Where many shining legions
 Of spirits clad in white,
 The Prince of Life descended,
 To save a fallen race,
 Who had their Lord offended,
 And forfeited his grace.

2 We'll hail him as our Savior,
 And fall upon his arms ;
 We'll thank him for the favor,
 And dwell upon his charms :
 We'll raise our joyful voices,
 His sovereign grace to sing ;
 While many a heart rejoices
 To welcome him their King.

3 " Go into every nation,"
 We hear him loud proclaim ;
 " Publish to them salvation ;
 Go, preach it in my name."
 We'll tell the pleasing story
 Which saints rehearse above,
 Who reign with him in glory,
 And dwell upon his love.

4 While we our anthems tender
 Unto the Prince of Peace,
 He shall, with royal splendor,
 The heathen's light increase ;
 Till, beauteous, on their mountains,
 The trumpeters shall stand,
 And Zion's blissful fountains,
 Stream gladness through the land.

The Patience of Hope.

1 Oh, when shall I see Jesus,
 And reign with him above,
 And from that flowing fountain
 Drink everlasting love!
 When shall I be delivered
 From this vain world of sin,
 And with my blessed Jesus
 Drink endless pleasures in?

2 Through grace I am determined
 To conquer though I die ;
 And then away to Jesus
 On wings of love I'll fly.
 Farewell to sin and sorrow,
 I bid you all adieu ;
 And, O, my friends, be faithful,
 And on your way pursue.

3 And if you meet with troubles
 And trials on your way,
 Then cast your care on Jesus,
 And don't forget to pray :
 Gird on the heavenly armor
 Of faith, and hope, and love,
 And when the combat's ended,
 He'll carry you above.

The Great Physician.

1 How lost was my condition
 Till Jesus made me whole !
 There is but one Physician
 Can cure the sin sick soul!
 Next door to death he found me,
 And snatched me from the grave,
 To tell to all around me,
 His wondrous power to save.

2 From men great skill professing,
 I thought a cure to gain ;
 But this proved more distressing,
 And added to my pain ;
 Some said that nothing ail'd me,
 Some gave me up for lost ;
 Thus every refuge fail'd me,
 And all my hopes were cross'd.

3 At length this great Physician,
 (How matchless is his grace!)
 Accepted my petition,
 And undertook my case :
 He gave me sight to view him,
 For sin my eyes had sealed ;
 Then bade me look upon him.
 I looked, and I was heal'd.

NOTE.—This hymn and tune are well calculated to arrest the sinner in sin and lead him to Christ.

- 2 How vain the delusion, that while you delay,
Your hearts may grow better by staying away;
Come wretched, come starving, come just as you be,
While streams of salvation are flowing so free.
- 3 And now Christ is ready your souls to receive,
O how can you question, if you will believe;
If sin is your burden, why will you not come,
'Tis you he bids welcome; he bids you come home.
- 4 In riches, in pleasures, what can you obtain,
To soothe your affliction, or banish your pain!
To bear up your Spirit when summon'd to high,
Or waft you to mansions of glory on high.
- 5 Why will you be starving and feeding on air?
There's mercy in Jesus, enough and to spare;
If still you are doubting, make trial and see,
And prove that his mercy is boundless and free.
- 6 Come, give us your hand, and the Savior your heart,
And trusting in heaven we never shall part;
O, how can we leave you? why will you not come?
We'll journey together, and soon be at home

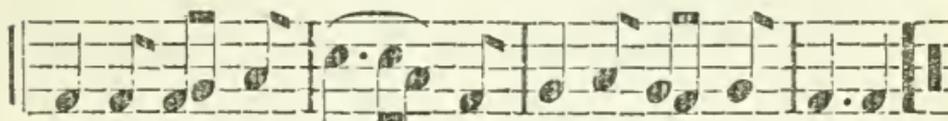

1. The Lord in - to his garden comes, The spices yield a rich perfume, The lilies grow and thrive, The lilies grow and thrive ;

Refreshing show'rs of grace divine, From Jesus flows to every vine, And makes the dead re - vive, And makes the dead re - vive.

2 This makes the dry and barren ground,
In springs of water to abound,
And fruitful soil become ;
The desert blossoms like the rose,
When Jesus conquers all his foes,
And makes his people one.

3 The glorious time is rolling on,
The gracious work is now begun,
My soul a witness is ;
Come, taste and see the pardon free
To all mankind, as well as me ;
Who come to Christ may live.

4 We feel that heaven is now begun,
It issues from a shining throne,
From Jesus' throne on high ;

It comes like floods we can't contain,
We drink, and drink, and drink again ;
And yet for more we cry.

5 But when we come to reign above,
And all surround the throne of love,
We'll drink a full supply ;
Jesus will lead his armies thro',
To living fountains where they flow,
That never will run dry.

6 There we shall reign, and shout and sing,
And make the upper regions ring,
When all the saints get home ;
Come on, come on, my brethren
dear,
Soon we shall meet together there,
For Jesus bids us come.

Arranged for this work.

1. Come, thou fount of every blessing, Tune my heart to sing thy praise,

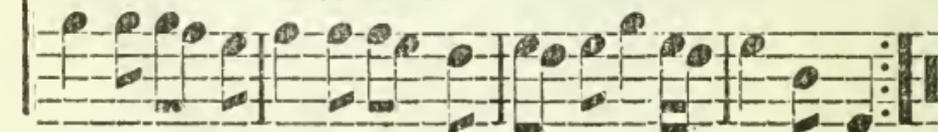

Streams of mercy never ceasing, Call for songs of loudest praise.

Teach me some melodious sonnet, Sung by flaming tongues above.
Glo-ry, Glo-ry, Glo-ry, Glo-ry, Glo-ry, Glo-ry, God is Love.

Praise the mount, I'm fixed upon it, Mount of thy re-deem-ing love.
Glo-ry, Glo-ry, Glo-ry, Glo-ry, Hal-le-lu-jah, God is love.

2 Here I'll raise mine Ebenezer,
 Hither by thy help I'm come;
 And I hope, by thy good pleasure,
 Safely to arrive at home.
 Jesus sought me when a stranger,
 Wand'ring from the fold of God;
 He, to rescue me from danger,
 Interpos'd his precious blood!
Glory, &c.

3 O! to grace how great a debtor
 Daily I'm constrain'd to be?
 Let thy goodness, like a fetter,
 Bind my wand'ring heart to thee:
 Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it;
 Prone to leave the God I love—
 Here's my heart, O take and seal it;
 Seal it for thy courts above.
Glory, &c.

The Savior born.

1
 Hark! what mean those holy voices,
 Sweetly sounding through the skies?
 Lo! th' angelic host rejoices;
 Heavenly hallelujah's rise.
 Hark! the heralds of salvation!
 Joyful news the angels bring;
 God, himself in flesh hath entered,
 Jesus is the new born King!
Glory, &c.

2
 Hear them tell the wondrous story,
 Hear them chant in hymns of joy,
 "Glory in the highest—glory!
 Glory be to God most high!
 Peace on earth—good will from heaven,
 Reaching far as man is found.
 Souls redeemed, and sins forgiven,"
 Loud our golden harps shall sound.
Glory, &c.

3
 Christ is born, the great Anointed;
 Heaven and earth his praises sing!
 Oh receive whom God appointed,
 For your Prophet, Priest and King.
 Haste, ye mortals to adore him;
 Learn his name and taste his joy;
 Till in heaven ye sing before him,
 Glory be to God most high!
Glory, &c. CAWOOD.

Full Salvation.
 1 Love divine, all loves excelling,
 Joy of heaven to earth come down;
 Fix in us thy humble dwelling,
 All thy faithful mercies crown!
 Jesus, thou art all compassion,
 Pure unbounded love thou art;
 Visit us with thy salvation,
 Enter every trembling heart.
Glory, &c.

2 Breathe, O breathe thy loving Spirit,
 Into every troubled breast!
 Let us all in thee inherit,
 Let us find that second rest.
 Take away our bent of sinning,
 Alpha and Omega be,
 End of faith as its beginning,
 Set our hearts at liberty.
Glory, &c.

3 Come, Almighty to deliver,
 Let us all thy life receive,
 Suddenly return, and never,
 Never more thy temples leave:
 Thee we would be always blessing,
 Serve thee as thy hosts above,
 Pray, and praise thee without ceasing,
 Glory in thy perfect love.
Glory, &c.

4 Finish then thy new creation,
 Pure and spotless let us be;
 Let us see thy great salvation,
 Perfectly restor'd in thee:
 Chang'd from glory into glory,
 Till in heaven we take our place,
 Till we cast our crowns before thee,
 Lost in wonder, love, and praise!
Glory, &c.

Doxology.
 Glory, honor, power, and blessing,
 Be unto the Father given:
 Sing his praises without ceasing,
 Sons of earth, and hosts of heaven.
 Glory be to Christ the Savior,
 Who hath bought us with his blood;
 Glory to the blessed Spirit,
 Glory to the mighty God.
Glory, &c.

NOTE.—A young lady in England, was much persecuted by her unconverted father, because she had embraced Jesus. He sought to divert her mind, and gave her a song to play and sing, called 'GO FORGET ME, WHY SHOULD SORROW &C,'—To his surprise she played and sung the following.

1. Je - sus, I my cross have ta - - ken,

All to leave and fol-low thee, Na-ked, poor, despised, for-sa - ken, Thou, from hence my all shalt be.

Per - ish . ev - 'ry fond am - bi - tion,

The foot of the Cross.

Let the world despise and leave me ;
 They have left my Savior too ;
 Human hearts and looks deceive me,
 Thou art not, like them, untrue ;
 And while thou shalt smile upon me,
 God of wisdom, love, and might,
 Foes may hate, and friends disown
 me ;
 Show thy face, and all is bright.

3

Go then, earthly fame and treasure,
 Come, disaster, scorn and pain,
 In thy service pain is pleasure,
 With thy favor, loss is gain.
 I have called thee Abba, Father,
 I have set my heart on thee ;
 Storms may howl, and clouds may gather,
 All must work for good to me.

4

Haste thee on from grace to glory,
 Armed by faith, and winged by prayer,
 Heaven's eternal days before thee,
 God's own hand shall guide thee there.
 Soon shall close thy earthly mission,
 Soon shall pass thy pilgrim days,
 Hope shall change to glad fruition,
 Faith to sight, and prayer to praise.

1

Sweet the moments, rich in blessing,
 Which before the cross I spend ;
 Life and health and peace possessing,
 From the sinner's dying Friend.
 Love and grief my heart dividing,
 With my tears his feet I'll bathe ;
 Still in faith and hope abiding,
 Life deriving from his death.

O how blessed is this station,
 Low before the cross I'll lie,
 While I see divine compassion
 Pleading in the Victim's eye ;
 Here I'll sit forever viewing
 Mercy streaming in his blood :
 Precious drops, my soul bedewing,
 Plead and claim my peace with God.

Here it is I find my heaven,
 While upon the Lamb I gaze ;
 Here I see my sins forgiven—
 Lost in wonder, love and praise.
 May I still enjoy this feeling,
 In all need to Jesus go :
 Prove his blood each day more healing,
 And himself more deeply know.

NOTE.—This tune is too good, and too general a favorite to be omitted in such a work as this.

1. 'Mid scenes of confusion and creature complaints, How sweet to my soul is com - mun - ion with saints? To find at the banquet of mer - cy there's room, And feel in the presence of Je - sus at home. Home, home, sweet, sweet home, Pre-

- 2 An alien from God, and a stranger to grace,
I wandered through earth, its gay pleasures to trace,
In the pathway of sin I continued to roam,
Unmindful, alas ! that it led me from home. Home, &c.
- 3 The pleasures of earth, I have seen fade away,
They bloom for a season, but soon they decay,
But pleasures more lasting, in Jesus are given,
Salvation on earth, and a mansion in heaven. Home, &c.
- 4 Allure me no longer, ye false glowing charms !
The Savior invites me, I'll go to his arms ;
At the banquet of mercy, I hear there is room,
O there may I feast with his children at home ! Home, &c.

I have started for Canaan.

Rev. S. Hoyt.

- 1 I have started for Canaan, must I leave you behind ?
Will you not go up with me ? come make up your mind.
The land lies before us, 'tis pleasant to view ;
Its fruits are abundant, they are offer'd to you.
*Come, come, friends, friends, come,
I've started for Canaan, Oh ! will you not come ?*
- 2 What can tempt you to linger, or turn from the way ?
The fields are all blooming, as blooming as May.
The music is charming, the harmony pure ;
The joys there are lasting, they ever endure.
Come, &c.
- 3 You have friends in that country, most dear to your heart,
Do you not wish to meet them, where friends never part ?
Then start in a moment, no longer delay,
While you stop to consider, the night ends the day.
Come, &c.
- 4 'Tis the last call of mercy, oh ! turn, lest you die,
Give your heart to the Savior, to-day he is nigh.
While his arms are extended, while his children all pray,
Will you not join our number ? come, join us to-day.
Come, &c.

JESUS REIGNS.

Sing ye in triumphant strains, Jesus our Mes - si - ah reigns !

Oh, ride on, Je - - sus, Oh ride on !

2 Power is all to Jesus given,
 Lord of hell, and earth, and heaven !
 Every knee to him shall bow ;
 Satan, hear, and tremble now !
Oh, ride on, &c.

4 Though the sons of night blaspheme,
 More there are with us than them ;
 God with us, we cannot fear,
 Fear, ye fiends, for Christ is here !

 All triumphantly combine ;
 All in Jesus' praise agree,
 Carrying on his victory.

 Claims the nations for his own,

Vainly with gold we his favor secure;
Richer by far is the heart's adoration;
Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor.

What danger can move us, while Je - sus is near!

To sheep of his pas-ture, his mercies a - - bound,
Not when the time calls us to walk through the vale

His care and pro - tec - tion, his flock will sur-round.
Of the sha-dow of death, shall our hearts ever fail

- 3 In ev'ry condition—in sickness, in health,
In poverty's vale, or abounding in wealth,
At home and abroad, on the land, on the sea,
As thy days may demand, so thy succor shall be.
- 4 "Fear not, I am with thee; O be not dismay'd!
For I am thy God, and will still give thee aid;
I'll strengthen thee, help thee, and cause thee to stand,
Upheld by my righteous, Omnipotent hand.

That soul, though all hell should endeavor to shake,

Kedron.

- 1 Thou sweet gliding Kedron, by thy silver streams,
Our Savior at midnight, when moonlight's pale beams
Shone bright on the waters, would frequently stray,
And lose, in thy murmurs, the toils of the day.
- 2 How damp were the vapors that fell on his head!
How hard was his pillow, how humble his bed!
The angels, astonish'd, grew sad at the sight,
And follow'd their Master with solemn delight.
- 3 O garden of Olivet, thou dear honor'd spot,
The fame of thy wonder shall ne'er be forgot;
The theme most transporting to seraphs above;
The triumph of sorrow, the triumph of love.
- 4 Come, saints, and adore him; come, bow at his feet!
O, give him the glory, the praise that is meet,
Let joyful hosannas unceasing arise,
And join the full chorus, that gladdens the skies.

I would not live always.

- 1 I would not live always: I ask not to stay,
Where storm after storm rises dark o'er the way,
The few lurid mornings that dawn on us here,
Are enough for life's woes, full enough for its cheer.
- 2 I would not live always; no—welcome the tomb,
Since Jesus hath lain there, I dread not its gloom:
There, sweet be my rest, till he bid me arise
To hail him in triumph descending the skies.
- 3 Who, who would live always, away from his God;
Away from yon heaven, that blissful abode,
Where the rivers of pleasure flow o'er the bright plains,
And the noontide of glory eternally reigns:
- 4 Where the saints of all ages in harmony meet,
Their Savior and brethren, transported to greet;
While the anthems of rapture unceasingly roll,
And the smile of the Lord is the feast of the soul.

There are angels hovering round.

Arranged for this work.

NOTE.—How often has this short tune inspired the whole company when sung as sinners were turning to the Lord or Christians were rejoicing.

1. There are an-gels hovering round, There are angels hovering round, There are an - gels, an - gels hovering round.

To carry the tidings home,
To the new Jerusalem;
Poor sinners are coming home,
And Jesus bids them come;
Let him that heareth come,
Let him that thirsteth come.

We are on our journey home.
Where Christ our Lord has gone.
We will meet around his throne.
When he makes his people one.
We shall reign forevermore.
In the new Jerusalem.

NOTE.—How truly is the experience of the faithful Christian related in the Hymn of this tune.

1. O how happy are they Who their Savior obey, And have laid up their treasure a - bove ! Tongue can never express The sweet com - fort and peace, Of a soul in its ear - li - est love.

2 That sweet comfort was mine,
When the favor divine
I first found in the blood of the Lamb,
When my heart it believed,
What a joy I received,
What a heaven in Jesus' name.

3 'Twas a heaven below
My Redeemer to know,
And the angels could do nothing more,
Than to fall at his feet,
And the story repeat,
And the lover of sinners adore.

4 Jesus all the day long
Was my joy and my song ;
O that all his salvation might see,
He hath loved me, I cried,
He hath suffered and died,
To redeem such a rebel as me.

5 O the rapturous height
Of that holy delight
Which I felt in the life-giving blood !
Of my Savior possess,
I was perfectly blest,
As if filled with the goodness of God.

Not too fast.

 I have tried ev' - ry source of mirth, But all, all will cloy. } Lord, be - stow on me, Grace to set the spirit free ; Thine the praise shall be ; Mine, mine the joy.

2 I have wandered in mazes dark, Of doubt and distress,
 I have had not a kindling spark, My spirit to bless ;
 Cheerless unbelief, Fill'd my laboring soul with grief,
 What shall give relief ? What shall give peace ?

3 I then turned to thy Gospel, Lord, From folly away,
 I then trusted thy holy word, That taught me to pray,
 Here I found release. Weary spirit here found rest,
 Hope of endless bliss, Eternal day.

4 I will praise now my Heavenly King, I'll praise and adore ;
 The heart's richest tribute bring To thee, God of power ;
 And in heaven above, Saved by thy redeeming love,
 Loud the strains shall move, Forevermore

From Wesleyan Harp.

1. Jerusalem, my happy home, When shall I go to thee ?

When will my labors have an end, Thy joys when shall I see ?

When shall these eyes thy heaven-built walls, And pearly gates behold ?

Thy bulwarks with salvation crowned, And streets of shining gold ?

2 O when thou city of my God,
 Shall I thy courts ascend,
 Where congregations ne'er break
 up,
 And Sabbaths never end?
 Why should I shrink from pain and wo,
 Or feel at death, dismay?
 Jerusalem, I soon shall view,
 In realms of endless day.

3 We there shall meet, no more to part,
 And heaven shall ring with praise;
 While Jesus's love in every heart,
 Shall tune the song—free grace.
 Jerusalem, my happy home,
 O how I long for thee;
 My sorrows all shall have an end,
 When once thy joys I see.

I shall be holy here.

1 O joyful sound of Gospel grace!
 Christ shall in me appear!
 I, even I, shall see his face;
 I shall be holy here.
 The glorious crown of right'ousness
 To me reach'd out I view;
 Conqueror through him I soon shall seize,
 And wear it as my due.

2 The promis'd land, from Pisgah's top,
 I now exult to see;
 My hope is full (O glorious hope!)
 Of immortality.
 He visits now the house of clay;
 He shakes his future home;
 O wouldst thou, Lord, on this glad day,
 Into thy temple come!

3 With me, I know, I feel thou art;
 But this cannot suffice,
 Unless thou plantest in my heart
 A constant paradise.
 Come, O my God, thyself reveal,
 Fill all this mighty void;
 Thou only caust my spirit fill;
 Come, O my God, my God!

The Sanctified heart.

1 My God, I know, I feel thee mine,
 And will not quit my claim,
 Till all I have is lost in thine,
 And all renew'd I am.
 I hold thee with a trembling hand,
 And will not let thee go,
 Till steadfastly by faith I stand,
 And all thy goodness know.

2 Jesus, thine all victorious love
 Shed in my heart abroad:
 Then shall my feet no longer rove,
 Rooted and fix'd in God.
 O that in me the sacred fire,
 Might now begin to glow!
 Burn up the dross of base desire,
 And make the mountains flow!

3 O that it now from heaven might fall,
 And all my sins consume:
 Come, Holy Ghost, for thee I call,
 Spirit of burning, come.
 Refining fire, go through my heart,
 Illuminate my soul;
 Scatter thy life through every part,
 And sanctify the whole.

Prospect of Heaven.

1 My span of life will soon be done,
 The passing moments say;
 As length'ning shadows o'er the mead,
 Proclaim the close of day.
 O that my heart might dwell aloof,
 From all created things,
 And learn that wisdom from above
 Whence true contentment springs.

2 Courage, my soul, thy bitter cross
 In every trial here,
 Shall bear thee to thy heaven above,
 But shall not enter there.
 The sighing ones that humbly seek
 In sorrowing paths below,
 Shall in eternity rejoice,
 Where endless comforts flow.

D. C.

2
His name yields the richest perfume
And sweeter than music his voice;
His presence disperses my gloom,
And makes all within me rejoice:
I should, were he always thus nigh,
Have nothing to wish or to fear;
No mortal so happy as I,
My summer would last all the year.

3
Content with beholding his face,
My all to his pleasure resign'd;
No changes of season or place
Would make any change in my mind:
While blessed with a sense of his love,
A palace a toy would appear;
And prisons would palaces prove,
If Jesus would dwell with me there.

4
Dear Lord, if indeed I am thine,
If thou art my sun and my song,
Say, why do I languish and pine?
And why are my winters so long?
O drive these dark clouds from my sky,
Thy soul cheering presence restore:
Or take me to thee up on high,
Where winter and clouds are no
more.

Israel's Shepherd.

1 Thou Shepherd of Israel and mine,
The joy and desire of my heart,
For closer communion I pine,
I long to reside where thou art ;
The pasture I languish to find,
Where all who their Shepherd obey
Are fed, on thy bosom reclin'd,
And screen'd from the heat of the day.

2 Ah! show me that happiest place,
The place of thy people's abode ;
Where saints in an ecstasy gaze,
And hang on a crucify'd God :
Thy love for a sinner declare ;
Thy passion and death on the tree ;
My spirit to Calvary bear,
To suffer and triumph with thee.

3 'Tis there with the lambs of thy flock,
There only I covet to rest ;
To lie at the foot of the rock,
Or rise to be hid in thy breast ;
'Tis there I would always abide,
And never a moment depart :
Conceal'd in the cleft of thy side.
Eternally held in thy heart.

Thirsting for Holiness.

1 What now is my object and aim?
What now is my hope and desire?
To follow the heavenly Lamb,
And after his image aspire :
My hope is all centred in thee ;
I trust to recover thy love :
On earth thy salvation to see,
And then to enjoy it above.

2 I thirst for a life giving God,
A God that on Calvary died :
A fountain of water and blood,
That gush'd from Immanuel's side!
I gasp for the streams of thy love,
The spirit of rapture unknown ;
And then to re-drink it above,
Eternally fresh from the throne.

Our Father's House.

1 Away with our sorrow and fear,
We soon shall recover our home ;
The city of saints shall appear ;
The day of eternity come.
From earth we shall quickly remove,
And mount to our native abode ;
The house of our Father above,
The palace of angels and God.

2 Our mourning is all at an end,
When, rais'd by the life-giving
Word,
We see the new city descend,
Adorn'd as a bride for her Lord :
The city so holy and clean,
No sorrow can breathe in the air ;
No gloom of affliction or sin ;
No shadow of evil is there !

3 By faith we already behold
That lovely Jerusalem here ;
Her walls are of jasper and gold,
As crystal her buildings are clear ;
Immovably founded in grace,
She stands, as she ever hath stood,
And brightly her Builder displays,
And flames with the glory of God

4 No need of the sun in that day,
Which never is follow'd by night,
Where Jesus's beauties display,
A pure and a permanent light ;
The Lamb is their Light and their Sun,
And lo ! by reflection they shine ;
With Jesus ineffably one,
And bright in effulgence divine !

5 The saints in his presence receive
Their great and eternal reward ;
In Jesus, in heaven they live ;
They reign in the smile of their Lord !
The flame of angelical love
Is kindled at Jesus's face ;
And all the enjoyment above
Consists in the rapturous gaze !

48 Oh for that tenderness of Heart. C. M. D.

1. O for that ten-der-ness of heart Which bows be-fore the Lord; Acknowledging how just thou art

That consciousness of guilt which fears,

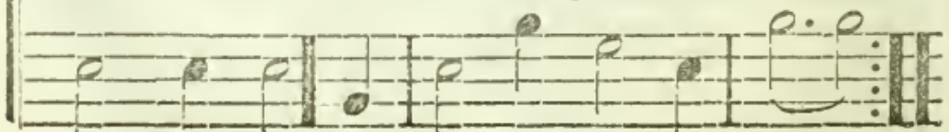

FINE.

And tremb-ling at thy word! O for those humble
The long suspended blow.

con - trite tears, Which from re-pen-tance flow,

2 And will the Lord thus condescend,
To visit dying worms !
Thus at the door shall mercy stand,
In all her winning forms.
Amazing grace ! and can my heart
Unmoved and cold remain ;
Has this hard rock no tender part,
Shall mercy plead in vain ?

3 Savior, to me, in pity give
The sensible distress ;
The pledge thou wilt, at last, receive,
And bid me die in peace :
Wilt from the dreadful day remove,
Before the evil come ;
My spirit hide with saints above,
My body in the tomb.

Providence ever faithful.

1

When all thy mercies, O my God,
My rising soul surveys ;
Transported with the view, I'm lost
In wonder, love, and praise !
O how can words with equal warmth
The gratitude declare,
That glows within my ravish'd heart ?
But thou canst read it there !

2

To all my weak complaints and cries,
Thy mercy lent an ear ;
Ere yet my feeble thoughts had learn'd
To form themselves in prayer.
Unnumbered comforts on my soul
Thy tender care bestow'd ;
Before my infant heart conceiv'd
From whom those comforts flow'd.

3

When in the slippery paths of youth,
With heedless steps I ran ;
Thine arm, unseen, convey'd me safe,
And led me up to man.
Through hidden dangers, toils, and deaths,
It gently clear'd my way ;
And through the pleasing snares of vice,
More to be feared than they.

4

Through every period of my life
Thy goodness I'll pursue ;
And after death, in distant worlds,
The pleasing theme renew.
Through all eternity to thee
A grateful song I'll raise ;
But O ! eternity's too short
To utter all thy praise.

Christian Union.

1 Our souls, by love together knit,
Cemented, mix'd in one, [voice ;
One hope, one heart, one mind, one
'Tis heaven on earth begun :
Our hearts have often burn'd within,
And glow'd with sacred fire, While Jesus spoke, and fed, and bless'd,
And fill'd the enlarg'd desire.

2 The little cloud increases still,
The heavens are big with rain,
We wait to catch the teeming shower,
And all its moisture drain :
A rill, a stream, a torrent flows,
But pour a mighty flood ;
O sweep the nations, shake the earth,
Till all proclaim thee God. [up,

3 And when thou makest thy jewels
And set'st thy starry crown,
When all thy sparkling gems shall
shine,

Proclaimed by thee thine own ;
May we, a little band of love,
We, sinners, saved by grace,
From glory unto glory changed,
Behold thee face to face.

Unalloyed Delights.

1 O 'tis delight, without alloy,
Jesus, to hear thy name ;
My spirit leaps with inward joy,
I feel the sacred flame.
My passions hold a pleasing reign,
When love inspires my breast,
Love, the divinest of the train,
The sovereign of the rest.

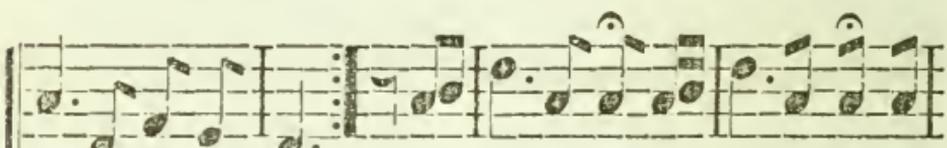

2 This is the grace must live and sing,
When faith and hope shall cease,
Must sound from every joyful string
Through the sweet groves of bliss.
Let life immortal seize my clay ;
Let love refine my blood ;
Her flames can bear my soul away,
Can bring me near my God.

3 Swift I ascend the heavenly place,
And hasten to my home,
I leap to meet thy kind embrace,
I come, O Lord, I come.
Sink down, ye separating hills,
Let sin and death remove ;
'Tis love that drives my chariot wheels,
And death must yield to love.

I am all unrighteousness.
False, and full of sin I am,
Thou art full of truth and grace.

Lord, we come before thee now,
At thy feet we humbly bow;
O! do not our suit disdain;
Shall we seek thee, Lord, in vain?
Lord, on thee our souls depend;
In compassion now descend;
Fill our hearts with thy rich grace,
Tune our lips to sing thy praise.

word,
That may joy and peace afford;
Let thy spirit now impart
Full salvation to each heart.

3

Comfort those who weep and mourn,
Let the time of joy return;
Those that are cast down lift up,
Make them strong in faith and hope.
Grant that all may seek and find,
Thee a gracious God, and kind;
Heal the sick, the captive free;
Let us all rejoice in thee.

The Love Feast.

1

Come, and let us sweetly join,
Christ to praise in hymns divine!
Give we all with one accord,
Glory to our common Lord;
Hands, and hearts, and voices raise;
Sing as in the ancient days,
Antedate the joys above,
Celebrate the feast of love.

2

Strive we, in affection strive:
Let the purer flame revive;
Such as in the martyrs glow'd,
Dying champions for their God;
We like them may live and love;
Call'd we are their joys to prove;
Sav'd with them from future wrath;
Partners of like precious faith.

Sing we then in Jesus's name,
Now as yesterday the same;
One in every time and place,
Full for all of truth and grace;
We for Christ, our Master, stand,
Lights in a benighted land:
We our dying Lord confess,
We are Jesus' witnesses.

4

Come, thou high and lofty Lord?
Lowly, meek, incarnate Word;
Humbly stoop to earth again:
Come and visit abject man!
Jesus, dear expected guest,
Thou art bidden to the feast:
For thyself our hearts prepare;
Come, and sit, and banquet there!

5

Jesus, we thy promise claim:
We are met in thy great name;
In the midst do thou appear,
Manifest thy presence here!
Sanctify us, Lord, and bless!
Breathe thy Spirit, give thy peace;
Thou thyself within us move:
Make our feast a feast of love.

1. The judgment day is rolling on, The judgment day is rolling on. The Judgment day is roll-ing on, As fast as time can move.

Oh ! there will be mourning, mourning, mourn-ing, mourning,

Oh there will be mourning, At the judgment seat of Christ.

 There wives and husbands soon may part, May part to meet no more.
 There friends and neighbors soon may part, O there will be mourning, &c.
 May part to meet no more. [part,

NOTE.—The late Bishop Emory, when a delegate to the British Conference in 1824, brought this tune on his return—it has been universally admired.

1. Come let us a - new our jour-ney pur-sue, Roll round with the labor of love, By the pa-tience of hope, and the labor of love.

3 Our life as a dream, our time as a stream
Glides swiftly away ;
And the fugitive moment refuses to stay.

4 The arrow is flown, the moment is gone ;
The millennial year
Rushes on to our view, and eternity's here.

5 O that each in the day of his coming may say,
“ I have fought my way through ;
I have finish'd the work thou didst give me to do ! ”

6 O that each from his Lord may receive the glad word,
“ Well and faithfully done !
Enter into my joy, and sit down on my throne ”

1. O fly mourning sin-ner, saith Je - sus to me, Thy guilt I will par-don, thy soul I will free;

From the chains that have bound thee, My grace shall release, And thy stains I will wash, and thy sor-rows shall cease.

- 2 Too long, guilty wanderer, too long hast thou been,
 In the broad road of ruin, in bondage to sin;
 Thine the world has allur'd, and enslav'd, and deceiv'd,
 While my counsel thou'st spurn'd, and my Spirit hast grieved.
- 3 Though countless thy sins, and though crimson thy guilt,
 Yet for crimes such as thine was my blood freely spilt;
 Come sinner, and prove me; come, mourner, and see
 The wounds that I bore, when I suffer'd for thee.
- 4 Thou doubt'st not my power—deny not my will;
 Come, needy, come, helpless, thy soul I will fill;
 My mercy is boundless; no sinner shall say,
 That he sued at my feet—but was driven away. J. B. W.

Delay not, O Sinner.

- 1 Delay not, delay not, O Sinner draw near!
 No price is demanded, the Savior is here,
 The waters of life are now flowing for thee:
 Redemption is purchased, salvation is free.
- 2 Delay not, delay not, O sinner to come
 For mercy is heard not, 'mid shades of the tomb;
 Yet mercy still lingers, and calls thee to day,
 Her message unheeded, will soon pass away.
- 3 Delay not, delay not, no longer abuse
 His love and compassion; how can you refuse
 The fountain that's opened in Jesus, thy God;
 Oh wash and be cleansed in his saving blood.

FEAR NOT LITTLE FLOCK.

1. Glo-ry to God that I have found, The pearl of my salvation;
 I'm marching through Immanuel's ground, Up to my heavenly station;

And I'm resolved to travel on, And nev-er to for-sake him.

I'll always keep the narrow way, Till I do o-ver-take him.

| 2 Fear not, says Christ, ye little flock | Fight on, fight on, ye heirs of grace, |
| Heirs of immortal glory;                 | And tell the pleasing story,           |
| For ye are built upon the rock,          | I'm with my little flock always,       |
| The kingdom lies before you.             | I'll bring them home to glory.         |

Sanctification.

1 Ye who know your sins forgiven,
 And are happy in the Lord,
 Have you read that gracious promise,
 Which is left upon record ;
 I will sprinkle you with water,
 I will cleanse you from all sin :
 Sanctify and make you holy,
 I will dwell and reign within.

2 Tho' you have much peace and comfort,
 Greater things you yet may find,
 Freedom from unholy tempers,
 Freedom from the carnal mind.
 To procure your perfect freedom,
 Jesus suffer'd, groan'd, and died,
 On the cross the healing fountain,
 Gushed from his wounded side.

3 If you have obtained this treasure
 Search and you shall surely find
 All the christian marks and graces,
 Planted, growing in your mind.
 Perfect faith, and perfect patience,
 Perfect lowliness, and then Perfect hope, and perfect meekness,
 Perfect love for God and man.

4 But be sure to gain the witness,
 Which abides both day and night ;
 This your God has plainly prom-
 is'd,
 This is like a stream of light.
 While you keep the blessed witness
 All is clear and calm within ;
 God himself assures you by it
 That your heart is cleansed from sin.

5 Be as holy and as happy,
 And as useful here below,
 As it is your Father's pleasure,
 Jesus, only Jesus know.
 Spread, O spread the holy fire,
 Tell, O tell what God has done,
 Till the nations are conformed
 To the image of his Son.

6 Wake up brother, wake up sister,
 Seek, O seek this holy state ;
 None but holy ones can enter
 Thro' the pure celestial gate.
 Can you bear the tho't of losing
 All the joys that are above ?
 No, my brother, no, my sister,
 God will perfect you in love.

1. Arise, my soul, arise, Shake off thy guilty fears, The bleeding Sacrifice In my behalf appears; Be-

Surety stands, Before the throne my Surety stands, My Surety stands, My name is written on his hands.

Faith in Christ.

- 2 He ever lives above,
For me to intercede ;
His all-redeeming love,
His precious blood to plead ;
His blood aton'd for all our race,
And sprinkles now the throne of grace.
- 3 Five bleeding wounds he bears,
Receiv'd on Calvary ;
They pour effectual prayers,
They strongly speak for me ;
Forgive him, O forgive, they cry,
Nor let that ransom'd sinner die !
- 4 The Father hears him pray,
His dear anointed One ;
He cannot turn away
The presence of his Son ;
His Spirit answers to the blood,
And tells me I am born of God.
- 5 My God is reconcil'd,
His pard'ning voice I hear ;
He owns me for his child,
I can no longer fear ;
With confidence I now draw nigh,
And Father, Abba Father, cry.

Excellence of Christ.

- 1 Let earth and heaven agree,
Angels and men be join'd
To celebrate with me
The Savior of mankind ;
T'adore the all-atoning Lamb,
And bless the sound of Jesus' name.
- 2 Jesus ! transporting sound !
The joy of earth and heaven ;
No other help is found,
No other name is given,
By which we can salvation have ;
But Jesus came the world to save.
- 3 Jesus ! harmonious name !
It charms the hosts above ;
They evermore proclaim,
And wonder at his love !
'Tis all their happiness to gaze,
'Tis heaven to see our Jesus' face.
- 4 His name the sinner hears,
And is from sin set free ;
'Tis music in his ears ;
'Tis life and victory ;
New songs do now his lips employ,
And dances his glad heart for joy.

The Year of Jubilee.

- 1 Blow ye the trumpet, blow,
The gladly solemn sound ;
Let all the nations know,
To earth's remotest bound ;
The year of Jubilee is come ;
Return, ye ransom'd sinners, home.
- 2 Jesus, our great High Priest,
Hath full atonement made ;
Ye weary spirits, rest,
Ye mournful souls, be glad ;
The year of Jubilee is come ;
Return, ye ransom'd sinners, home.
- 3 Extol the Lamb of God,
The all-atoning Lamb ;
Redemption in his blood
Throughout the world proclaim.
The year of Jubilee is come ;
Return, ye ransom'd sinners, home.
- 4 Ye who have sold for nought
Your heritage above,
Shall have it back unbought,
The gift of Jesus' love ;
The year of Jubilee is come ;
Return, ye ransom'd sinners, home.
- 5 The gospel trumpet hear,
The news of heavenly grace
And, sav'd from earth, appear Before your Savior's face ;
The year of Jubilee is come ;
Return, ye ransom'd sinners, home.

Freedom from Sin.

- 1 Ye ransom'd sinners, hear,
The prisoners of the Lord ;
And wait till Christ appear,
According to his word ;
Rejoice in hope, rejoice with me,
We shall from all our sins be free.
- 2 Let others hug their chains,
For sin and Satan plead,
And say, from sin's remains
They never can be free ;
Rejoice in hope, rejoice with me,
We shall from all our sins be free.
- 3 In God we put our trust ;
If we our sins confess,
Faithful is he, and just,
From all unrighteousness
To cleanse us all, both you and me ;
We shall from all our sins be free

Very Slow.

1. Saw ye my Savior! Saw ye my Savior! Saw ye my Savior

God! O he died on Cal-va-ry, To atone for you and me, And to purchase our pardon with blood.

2 He was extended, he was extended,
Painfully nail'd to the cross;
There he bowed his head and died,
There my Lord was crucified,
To atone for a world that was lost.

3
Jesus hung bleeding, Jesus hung bleeding,
Three dreadful hours in pain;
And the solid rocks were rent,
Through creation's vast extent,
When the Jews crucified the Lamb.

4 Darkness prevail'd, Darkness prevail'd,
Darkness prevail'd o'er the land;
And the sun refused to shine,
While his Majesty divine
Was derided, insulted and slain.

5
When it was finish'd, when it was finish'd,
And the atonement was made,
He was taken by the great,
And embalmed in spices sweet,
And was in a new sepulchre laid.

6
Hail, mighty Savior, hail, mighty Savior,
Prince and the Author of peace,
Soon he burst the bands of death,
And triumphant, from the earth,
He ascended to mansions of bliss.

7
There interceding, there interceding,
Pleading that sinners may live,
Crying, "See my hands and side,
Father, I was crucified
To redeem them, I pray thee forgive.

8
"I will forgive them, I will forgive them
When they repent and believe;
Let them now return to thee,
And be reconcil'd to me,
And salvation they all shall receive."

3 There in the blooming garden
Of Eden gained by pardon,—
Upon the banks of Jordan,
We'll worship then the Lamb.
When we all meet in heaven, &c.

4 We'll sing the song of Moses,
While Jesus sweet composes,
A song that never closes,
Of praises to his name.

1. Man at his first cre - a - tion, In Eden God did place, The public head and Father, Of all the human race; But by the subtle serpent, Beguil'd he was and fell, And by his dis - o - be - di - ence, Was doomed to death and hell.

2 While in this situation,
A promise there was made,
The offspring of the woman
Should bruise the serpent's head.
Against the power of Satan,
That man might only feel,
The malice of the serpent,
Enraging at his heel.

3 Now at the time appointed,
Jesus unveiled his face,
Assumed our human nature,
And suffered in our place ;
He suffered on mount Calvary,
And ransomed all for me,
The law demands attention,
To pay the penalty.

4 They laid him in a sepulchre
It being near at hand,
The grave now could not hold him,
Nor death's cold iron band.
He burst them all asunder,
And pull'd their kingdoms down,
He's overcome his enemies,
And wears a starry crown.

5 Now at the resurrection
To Mary he appeared,
Saying, tell to my disciples,
What you have seen and heard,
Go tell them I am risen,
My suffering time is o'er,
I'm going to my Father
To reign forevermore.

6 He came to his disciples,
And found them all alone,
And gave them their commission
To make his gospel known ;
Go preach it to all nations,
Baptize them in my name,
Beginning at Jerusalem,
'Twas there I suffered shame.

7 Go preach it to all nations,
That they may hear and know,
Go publish free salvation,
That men to heaven may go ;
In every sore temptation,
You succor I will send,
And lo ! I will be with you
Until the world shall end.

FIDELITY. P. M.

Oh brethren be faithful, Oh brethren be faithful, O brethren be

The first system of musical notation for the hymn 'Fidelity'. It consists of two staves: a treble clef staff on top and a bass clef staff on the bottom. The time signature is 6/4. The key signature has one flat (B-flat). The melody is written in the treble staff, and the bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment. The lyrics 'Oh brethren be faithful, Oh brethren be faithful, O brethren be' are written below the first staff.

faith-ful, faithful, faithful Till we all ar - rive at home.

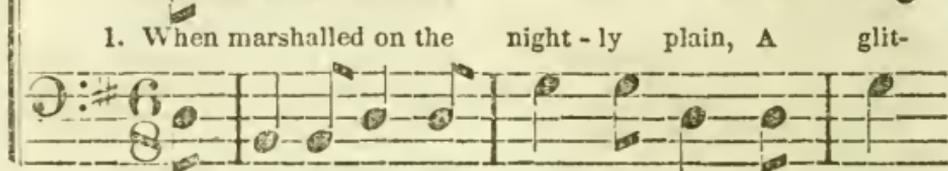

The second system of musical notation continues the melody and accompaniment from the first system. The lyrics 'faith-ful, faithful, faithful Till we all ar - rive at home.' are written below the first staff. The system ends with a double bar line.

Oh sisters be faithful, &c.
Till we all arrive at home.
There shall we see Jesus, &c.
When we all arrive at home.

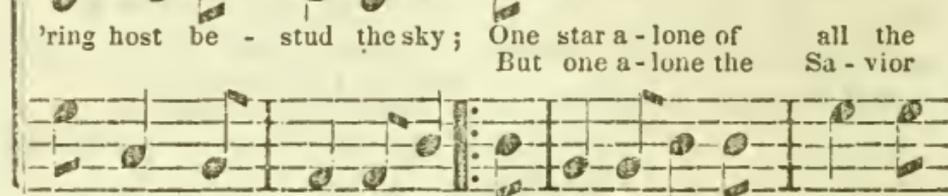

Then we will shout glory, &c.
When we all arrive at home.
There'll be no more parting, &c.
When we all arrive at home.

2 Once on the raging seas I rode ;
 The storm was loud, the night was dark, [blowed,
 The ocean yawned, and rudely
 The wind that tossed my foundering bark.
 Deep horror then my vitals froze ;
 Death struck, I ceased the tide to
 When suddenly a star arose, [stem:
 It was the star of Bethlehem.

3 It was my guide, my light, my all ;
 It bade my dark forebodings cease ;
 And through the storm and dan-
 ger's thrall,
 It led me to the port of peace.
 Now safely moor'd, my perils o'er,
 I'll sing, first in night's diadem,
 Forever, and forever more,
 The star, the star of Bethlehem.

Sinner's Come.

1 Come sinners, to the Gospel feast
 Let every soul be Jesus' guest ;
 Ye need not one be left behind
 For God hath bidden all mankind.
 Sent by my Lord, on you I call ;
 The invitation is to all : [thou !
 Come, all the world! come, sinner,
 All things in Christ are ready now.

2 Come, all ye souls by sin oppress'd,
 Ye restless wand'ers after rest ;
 Ye poor, and maim'd, and halt,
 and blind,
 In Christ a hearty welcome find.
 My message as from God receive ;
 Ye all may come to Christ and live:
 O let his love your hearts constrain,
 Nor suffer him to die in vain !

3 His love is mighty to compel ;
 His conqu'ring love consent to feel:
 Yield to his love's resistless power,
 And fight against your God no
 more.

See him set forth before your eyes,
 That precious, bleeding sacrifice !
 His offer'd benefits embrace,
 And freely now be sav'd by grace!

Ho, every one that thirsts.
 1 Ho! every one that thirsts, draw nigh ;
 'Tis God invites the fallen race ;
 Mercy and free salvation buy,
 Buy wine, and milk, and Gospel
 grace.
 Come to the living waters, come !
 Sinners, obey your Maker's call ;
 " Return, ye weary wand'ers, home,
 And find my grace is free for all."

2 See from the rock a fountain rise ;
 For you in healing streams it rolls ;
 Money ye need not bring, nor price,
 Ye lab'ring, burden'd, sin sick souls
 Nothing ye in exchange shall give,
 Leave all you have, and are,
 behind ;
 Frankly the gift of God receive,
 Pardon and peace in Jesus find.

3 " Why seek ye that which is not bread,
 Nor can your hungry souls sustain :
 On ashes, husks, and air ye feed ;
 Ye spend your little all in vain.
 In search of empty joys below,
 Ye toil with unavailing strife :
 Whither, ah! whither would ye go?
 I have the words of endless life.

The Sabbath.

1 Sweet is the work, my God, my King, [and sing,
 To praise thy name, give thanks
 To show thy love by morning light,
 And talk of all thy truth by night.
 Sweet is the day of sacred rest,
 No mortal cares shall seize my breast,
 O may my heart in tune be found,
 Like David's harp of solemn sound!

2 When grace has purified my heart,
 Then I shall share a glorious part :
 And fresh supplies of joy are shed,
 Like holy oil to cheer my head.
 Then shall I see and hear, and know
 All I desir'd or wish'd below ;
 And every hour find sweet employ,
 In that eternal world of joy.

Christian Lyre.

1. How sweet to reflect on those joys that await me, In yon blissful region, the haven of rest, Where glorified spirits with welcome shall greet me, And lead me to mansions prepared for the blest; En-cir-cled in light And with glo-ry en-shroud-ed, My hap-pi-ness per-fect, my mind's sky unclouded, I'll bathe in the ocean of pleasure unbounded, And range with delight thro' the Eden of love.

1 How sweet to reflect on those joys that await me,
 In yon blissful region, the haven of rest;
 Where glorified spirits with welcome shall meet me,
 And lead me to mansions prepared for the blest;
 Encircled in light, and with glory enshrouded,
 My happiness perfect, my mind's sky unclouded,
 I'll bathe in the ocean of pleasure unbounded,
 And range with delight through the Eden of Love.

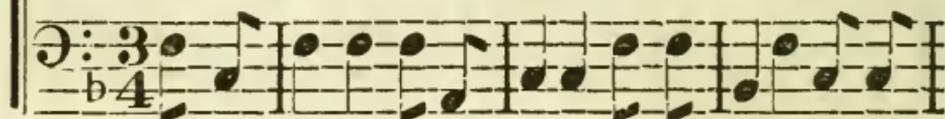

2 While angelic legions, with harps tuned celestial,
 Harmoniously join in the concert of praise,
 The saints, as they flock from the regions terrestrial,
 In loud hallelujahs their voices shall raise;
 Then songs to the Lamb shall re-echo through heaven,
 My soul will respond, to Immanuel be given
 All glory, all honor, all might and dominion,
 Who brought us through grace to the Eden of Love.

3 Then hail, blessed state! Hail ye songsters of glory!
 Ye harpers of bliss, soon I'll meet you above!
 And join your full choir in rehearsing the story,
 "Salvation from sorrow, through Jesus's love."
 Though prisoned in earth, yet by anticipation,
 Already my soul feels a sweet prelibation,
 Of joys that await me, when freed from probation;
 My heart's now in heaven, the Eden of Love!

1. O for a closer walk with God, A calm and heavenly A light to shine up - on the road That leads me to the frame ; }

Lamb. } Where is the bless-ed - ness I knew, When first I saw the Lord ? Where is the soul-refreshing view Of Jesus and his word ?

2 What peaceful hours I once enjoy'd,

How sweet their memory still !
But they have left an aching void
The world can never fill.

Return, O holy Dove, return,
Sweet messenger of rest !

I hate the sins that made thee mourn,
And drove me from thy breast.

3 The dearest idol I have known,

Whate'er that idol be,
Help me to tear it from thy throne,
And worship only thee.

So shall my walk be close with God,

Calm and serene my frame ;

So purer light shall mark the road
That leads me to the Lamb.

Babel's Streams.

1 Oh no, we cannot sing the songs,
 Made for Jehovah's praise;
 Our sorrowing harps refuse their
 strings,
 To Zion's gladsome strains.
 They bid us be in mirthful mood,
 And dry these tears so sad;
 But Judah's hearths are desolate,
 And how can we be glad?

2 Silent our harps o'er Babel's streams
 Are hung on willows wet;
 And Zion we no more shall see;
 But we can ne'er forget.
 Jerusalem, thy banish'd ones,
 Prove anguish and regret;
 But heaven's own curse shall rest on them,
 If thee they e'er forget.

The Faithful Friend.

1 O thou who driest the mourner's tear,
 How dark this world would be,
 If, pierced by sins and sorrows here,
 We could not fly to thee!
 The friends who in our sunshine live,
 When winter comes, are flown;
 And he who has but tears to give,
 Must weep those tears alone.

2 Oh! who could bear life's stormy
 Did not thy wing of love (doom, Come brightly wafting through the gloom,
 Our peace-branch from above.
 Then sorrow touched by thee, grows bright,
 With more than rapture's ray:
 As darkness shows us worlds of light,
 We never saw by day.

I want to wear the Crown. L. M.

1. Je - sus, my all, to heaven is gone; I want to wear the crown,

He whom I fix my hopes up-on; I want to wear the crown,

Oh my heart says praise the Lord, my heart says praise the Lord, my heart says praise the Lord, I want to wear the crown.

2 The way the holy prophets went,
 I want to wear the crown,
 The road that leads from banishment;
 I want to wear the crown,
 Oh my heart says, &c.

3 His track I see, and I'll pursue,
 I want to wear the crown,
 The narrow way, till him I view,
 I want to wear the crown,
 Oh my heart says, &c.

4 The King's highway of holiness,
 I want to wear the crown,
 I'll go, for all his paths are peace.
 I want to wear the crown,
 Oh my heart says, &c.

5 Lo! glad I come, and thou, blest
 I want to wear the crown, [Lamb,
 Shalt take me to thee whose I am;
 I want to wear the crown,
 Oh my heart says, &c.

END.

1. While na - ture was sink - ing in still - ness to rest,
In deep med - i - ta - tion I wandered my feet.

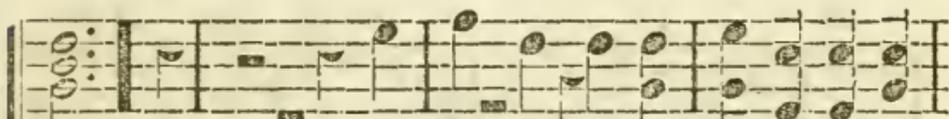

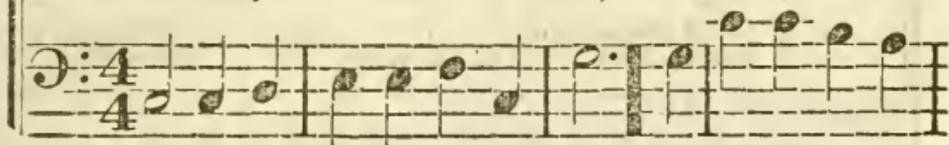

D. C.

{ The last beam of day-light shone dim in the west, }
{ O'er fields, by pale moonlight, in lone - ly re - treat, }

- 2 While passing a garden I paused to hear,
A voice faint and plaintive, from one that was there;
The voice of the suff'rer affected my heart,
While pleading in anguish the poor sinner's part.
- 3 I listen'd a moment, then turn'd me to see
What man of compassion this stranger might be!
I saw him, low, kneeling, upon the cold ground,
The loveliest BEING that ever was found.
- 4 So deep were his sorrows, so fervent his prayers,
That down o'er his bosom roll'd sweat, blood, and tears!
I wept to behold him!—I ask'd him his name,
He answered,—“'Tis JESUS! from heaven I came!
- 5 I am thy Redeemer! For thee I must die;
The cup is most bitter, but cannot pass by!
Thy sins, like a mountain, are laid upon me;
And all this deep anguish I suffer for thee.”
- 6 How sweet was that moment he bade me rejoice!
His smile, O how pleasant! How cheering his voice!
I flew from the garden to spread it abroad,
I shouted Salvation! and Glory to God!
- 7 I'm now on my journey to mansions above;
My soul's full of glory, of light, peace and love!
I think of the garden, the prayers, and the tears,
Of that loving Stranger, who banished my fears!
- 8 The day of bright glory is rolling around,
When Gabriel descending—the trumpet shall sound;
My soul then in raptures of glory shall rise
To gaze on the Stranger with unclouded eyes.

NOTE.—The first Hymn in the Methodist Hymn Book is also a proper one to be sung with this tune.

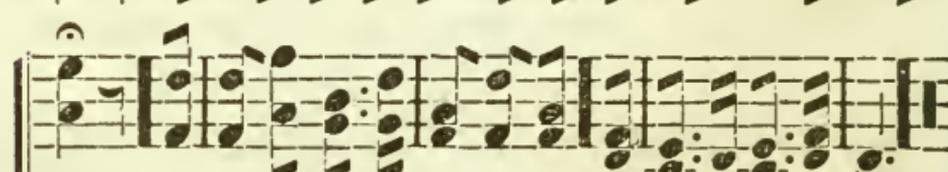

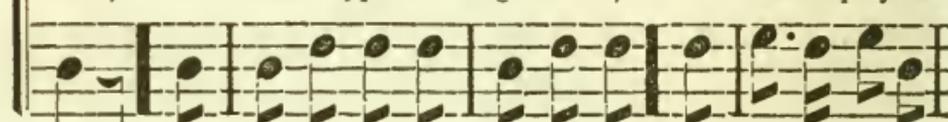

1. What glorious tidings do I hear, From my Redeemer's
2. The dead are raised to life anew, By renovating tongue! I can no longer silence bear; I'll break into a grace; The glorious gospel's preached to you, The poor of Adam's song, The blind receive their sight with joy, The lame can walk apace; O wondrous type of things divine, When Christ displays his broad, The dumb their loosened tongues employ, The deaf can hear the word, love, To raise from wo the sinking mind, To reign in realms above.

No tranquil joys on earth I

No peaceful, sheltering dome;
This world's a wilderness of wo;
This world is not my home.

<sup>3</sup>
To Jesus Christ I sought for rest,
He bade me cease to roam;
And fly for succor to his breast,
And he'd conduct me home.

I viewed the gaping tomb.
Although I dread death's chilling flood,
Yet still I sighed for home.

NOTE.—The late Doctor Fisk was particularly fond of this tune, and in the prayer meeting would frequently break forth alone in its strains.

1. O thou in whose presence my soul takes delight, On whom in affliction I call; My comfort by day, and my song in the night, My hope, my salvation, my all.

2

O why should I wander an alien from thee ;
 Or cry in the desert for bread ;
 Thy foes will rejoice when my sorrows they see,
 And smile at the tears I have shed.

Ye daughters of Zion, declare, have you seen,
 The Star that on Israel shone :
 Say, if in your tents my Beloved has been,
 And where with his flock he has gone?

4

His voice as the sound of the dulcimer sweet,
Is heard through the shadow of death,
The cedars of Lebanon bow at his feet,
The air is perfumed with his breath.

5

His lips as a fountain of righteousness flow,
To water the gardens of grace ;
From which their salvation the Gentiles shall know
And bask in the smiles of his face.

6

He looks, and ten thousand of angels rejoice,
And myriads wait for his word ;
He speaks, and eternity filled with his voice,
Re-echoes the praise of the Lord.

The Friend above all others.

Arranged and Harmonized for this work.

NOTE.—The words to this tune are very much used by the Welch in times of revivals.

There's a friend a - bove all oth-ers, Oh how he loves!

His is love be - yond a brother's, Oh how he loves!

Earthly friends may fail and leave us, This day kind, the next be-reave us;

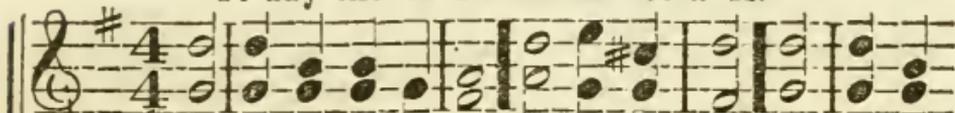

But this friend will ne'er de-ceive us. Oh how he loves!

- 2 Blessed Jesus! would'st thou know him,
Oh, how he loves!
Give thyself e'en this day to him,
Oh, how he loves!
Is it sin that pains and grieves
thee,
Unbelief and trials tease thee?
Jesus can from all release thee,
Oh, how he loves!
- 3 Love this friend who longs to save
thee,
Oh, how he loves!
Dost thou love? He will not leave thee,
Oh, how he loves!
Think no more then of to-morrow,
Take his easy yoke and follow,
Jesus carries all thy sorrows,
Oh! how he loves!
- 4 All thy sins shall be forgiven,
Oh, how he loves!
Backward all thy foes be driven,
Oh, how he loves!
Best of blessings he'll provide
thee,
Nought but good shall e'er betide
thee,
Safe to glory he will guide thee,
Oh, how he loves!
- 5 Let us still this love be viewing,
Oh, how he loves!
And though faint keep on pursuing,
Oh, how he loves!
He will strengthen each endeavor,
And when pass'd o'er Jordan's river,
This shall be our song for ever,
Oh, how he loves!

Weep not for me.

- 1 When the spark of life is waning,
Weep not for me.
When the languid eye is stealing,
Weep not for me.
When the feeble pulse is ceasing,
Start not at its swift decreasing;
'Tis the fettered soul releasing,
Weep not for me.
- 2 When the pangs of death assail
me,
Weep not for me.
Christ is mine, he cannot fail me,
Weep not for me.
Yes, though sin and doubt endeavor,
From his love my soul to sever,
Jesus is my strength for ever,

When my heart is so defiled?
Though thy dying love has won me,
Can I deem thee reconciled.

2 Farewell, my friends, time rolls along,
Nor waits for mortal's care or bliss;
leave you here and travel on,
Till I arrive where Jesus is.
I'll march, &c.

3 Farewell my friends, with many sighs,
And sorrow that no words can tell,
With bursting heart and weeping eyes,
I bid you all farewell, farewell.
I'll march, &c.

4 Farewell, my brethren in the Lord,
To you I'm bound in cords of love ;
Yet we believe his gracious word,
That soon we all shall meet above.
I'll march, &c.

5 Farewell, farewell ye saints of God,
Though many trials we have seen,
Yet we have loved the Savior's word,
And sweet our fellowship has been.
I'll march, &c.

6 'Farewell, old soldiers of the cross, You've struggled hard and long for heaven ;
You've counted all things here but
loss,
Fight on, the crown will soon be
I'll march, &c. (given.)

7 Farewell, ye youth, be bold, be strong,
And firm the hallowed cross sustain ;
In Jesus' service, earthly loss,
Will but increase your heavenly gain.
I'll march, &c.

8 Farewell, poor careless sinners, too,
It grieves my heart to leave you here,
Eternal vengeance waits for you ;
O turn, and find salvation near.
I'll march, &c.

9 Farewell, my friends I soon shall rise,
And join the angelic host on high ;
I gaze on heaven with wishful eyes,
And long with angels' wings to fly.
I'll march, &c.

Jesus' Love.

1 Plunged in a gulf of dark despair,
We wretched sinners lay,
Without one cheering beam of hope,
Or spark of glimm'ring day.
With pitying eyes the Prince of grace
Beheld our helpless grief ;
He saw, and (O amazing love !)
He ran to our relief.

2 O for this love let rocks and hills
Their lasting silence break ;
And all harmonious human tongues,
The Savior's praises speak.

Strike all your harps of gold ;
But when you raise your highest

The Returning Wanderer.

1 O for a closer walk with God,
A calm and heavenly frame ;
A light to shine upon the road
That leads me to the Lamb.
Where is the blessedness I knew,
When first I saw the Lord ?
Where is the soul-refreshing view
Of Jesus and his word ?

2 What peaceful hours I once en-joy'd,
How sweet their memory still !
But they have left an aching void
The world can never fill.
Return, O holy Dove, return,
Sweet messenger of rest !
I hate the sins that made thee mourn,
And drove thee from my breast.

3 The dearest idol I have known,
Whate'er that idol be,
Help me to tear it from thy throne,
And worship only thee.
So shall my walk be close with God,
Calm and serene my frame ;
So purer light shall mark the road
That leads me to the Lamb.

Come now to me, why will ye die?
O make one effort now, and try
To break the chain that binds you.
I'll take your load of guilt away,
And write your name above to-day,
And if you always watch and pray,
I never will forsake you.

3 I am both merciful and true,
And came to save just such as you;
For this the pains of death went through,
And thus procured your pardon.
And will you now my grace abuse?
My pardoning mercy still refuse?
O will you stay away and choose,
The road to death and sorrow?

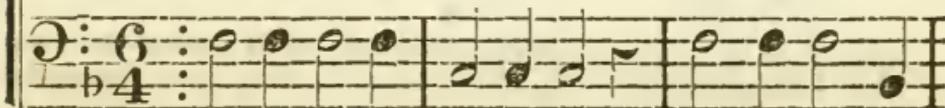

4 Nay; Lord, I will, I do believe,
Thou wilt my guilty soul receive,
And from my load of guilt relieve,
And justify me freely.
I will no more in gloom repine,
For I am his, and He is mine;
His blessed light doth in me shine,
Dispersing all my darkness.

5 I'm happy now, my heart is free;
How could he save a wretch like me!
O, may my tongue forever be Employed to spread his glory!
Let angels help me while I sing,
And all the saints their tribute bring;
Let Heaven and earth with praises ring,
Forever and forever.

When soul and body's parting.

6 I want to see bright angels stand,
And waiting to receive me,
To bear my soul to Canaan's land,
Where Christ has gone before me.

JESUS IS REIGNING.

Arranged and Harmonized for this work.

1. Hail the day so long pre - dic - ted ; Hark ! the her - ald an - gels sing, Christ is born the much ex - pect - ed,

Glo - ry to the new born King ; Glory in the high - est, glo - ry,

Peace on earth, good will to men ; Je - sus, we her - ald, we

2 Hark, again, the rocks are rending,
Earth unto her centre quakes ;
Lo, the son of God is dying !
Satan's kingdom now he shakes.
Hear him crying, " It is finished,
I have paid the price for them."
Jesus is dying, &c.
Jesus is dying for sinful men.

3 Tune your harps, ye heavenly seraphs ;
Shout ye followers of the Lamb ;
Lo, he bursts the tomb and rises ;
Jesus is the conqueror's name.
Angels now proclaim the tidings,
Hear him while he intercedes.
Jesus has risen, &c. (pleads.
Jesus has risen ; for sinners

4 See the eternal judge descending,
Seated on his Father's throne ;
Thousand thousand hosts attending,
Swell the triumph of his train,
While the angel Gabriel sounding,
Earth and hell attend the call ;
Jesus is coming, &c.
Jesus is coming, the Judge of all.

5 Now the judgment day is over ;
Hell its prey has all received ;
Heaven's heirs are crowned forever,
Such as have in Christ believed.
Angel and archangel vying,
Saints and seraphs join the cry.
Jesus is reigning, &c. (high.
Jesus is reigning, the Lord most

Why Sleep Ye. Tune next Page.

- 1 Why sleep ye, my brethren! come, let us arise,
O, why should we slumber in sight of the prize?
Salvation is nearer, our days are far spent,
O, let us be active ; awake ! and repent.
Awake then ye slumb'rer, hear Jesus invite,
Awake thou that sleepest, and I will give light.
- 2 O, how can we slumber ! the Master is come,
And calling on sinners to seek them a home ;
The Spirit and Bride now in concert unite,
The weary they welcome, the careless invite.
Awake then, &c.
- 3 O, how can we slumber ! our foes are awake ;
To ruin poor souls every effort they make ;
To accomplish their object no means are untried,
The careless they comfort, the wakeful misguide.
Awake then, &c.
- 4 O, how can we slumber! when so much was done,
To purchase salvation by Jesus the Son !
Now mercy is proffer'd, and justice display'd,
Now God can be honor'd, and sinners be saved.
Awake then, &c.

1 My soul's full of glory, Inspiring my tongue, Could I meet with
For glo-ry, all glo-ry in Je sus I see, It's glo-ry for-

FINE.

angels I'd sing them a song; } I'd sing of my Je - sus, and ev - er in Je - sus for me. }

tell of his charms, And beg them to bear me to his loving arms.

2 O Jesus! O Jesus! thou balm of my soul,
'Twas thou, my dear Jesus, that made my heart whole;
O, bring me to view thee, thou glorious King,
In oceans of glory thy praises to sing.
For glory, &c.

3 A glimpse of bright glory surprises my soul,
I sing in sweet visions to view the bright goal;
My soul, while I'm singing, is leaping to go,
'This moment for heaven, I'd leave all below.
For glory, &c.

4 To the regions of glory my spirit shall flee.
And take this poor body immortal and free;
With angelic armies forever to blaze,
On Jesus's beauties forever to gaze.
For glory, &c.
